How to Report Work-Related Injuries

What should be done if injured at work?

Employee

- 1. Immediately report the injury to the employer representative named below.
- 2. Select a treating physician from a panel provided by your employer.
- 3. If you have questions or problems, contact the employer representative or the Bureau of Workers' Compensation.

Employer

- Complete your company's internal "Workplace Injury form" and notify your workers' compensation insurance company immediately, even if you have concerns about the validity of the claim.
- 2. Offer a panel of physicians to the employee via Form C-42 available on the Bureau's website. In cases of emergency, call an ambulance and provide this form as soon as the injured employee has stabilized.
